Public Comment & Non Agenda Items

Ann Welch from the Collett Park Association – Futsal – getting 2 bids for repairing asphalt in west tennis court and 2 bids for concrete surfacing in west tennis court.

The Association would also like to put corn hole boards in between pit lanes of first 3 horseshoe pits. The building at the park will allow them to store their boards.

The Association would like to put a raised flower bed on either side of the park bench in the center of the park.

Ann Welch explained that the horseshoe people would like to have the lights back on, but Superintendent Bird explained that the park closes at dusk, so no need for lights.

Ms. Welch explained that some of the arches are not capped on the pavilion and are starting to erode. Superintendent Bird explained that we are already aware of the situation.

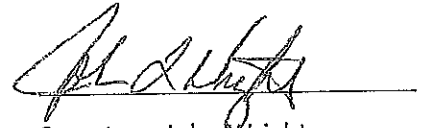

Ann Welch asked how to get a cornhole league approved and board members explained to her that she did not need approval.

Park Board Members discussed having the June meeting at Collett Parks.
