

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: a cancer survivor is defined as anyone living with a history of cancer-from the moment of diagnosis through the remainder of their life. There are over 18 million cancer survivors in the United States; and

WHEREAS: since the number of cancer survivors is projected to increase to 22.2 million by 2030, increased access to effective cancer treatments, quality survivorship care, and necessary psychosocial resources-especially among minorities and the medically underserved-must be a top priority in our community; and

WHEREAS: Terre Haute, Indiana and the surrounding rural communities have a diverse cancer survivor population. Hundreds of communities around the world will be celebrating life today and we are happy you have joined us; and

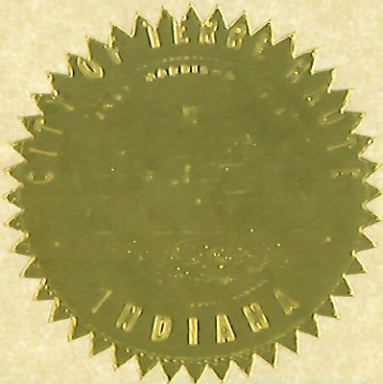

WHEREAS: on behalf of the people of the Wabash Valley, I salute all cancer survivors and those that support them.

NOW, THEREFORE: I, Duke A Bennett, Mayor of the City of Terre Haute, do hereby proclaim June 4th, 2023 as in Terre Haute, Indiana and urge all citizens to join in this joyous celebration.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the City of Terre Haute to be affixed this 4th day of June, 2023.

Duke A Bennett, Mayor
